

2010
NJLLA VIRGINIA TILL LEMMON AWARD NOMINATION FORM

Award Description:

The Virginia Till Lemmon Award is given in honor of a founding member of the New Jersey Law Librarians Association who retired as a tenured librarian from the Rutgers University Law School Library. It is awarded annually at convocation to a Rutgers School of Communication & Information, Library & Information Department student.

Criteria:

The criteria for selection are outstanding performance in the MLIS Program at Rutgers and a demonstrated interest in law librarianship. The candidate(s) can be graduating or continuing student(s) completing at least their second semester.

Name of Candidate & contact information (phone and/or email:)

Rutgers SCI Status (check one):

Graduating Continuing

Describe why you feel this person meets the qualifications for the Virginia Till Lemmon Award:

Recommended by (your name & email address):

Please return to NJLLA Grants & Awards Committee Chair, Mary Ellen Kaas (mkaas@mdmc-law.com) by Tuesday, March 30, 2010.