

Colleen Anderson Bio

Colleen Anderson has been a reference librarian since 1994, specializing in the subject areas of business and economics. From 2001-2008, Colleen was the Head of Reference Services at Bryant University, during which time she initiated the faculty liaison program and the chat reference service. Colleen served as Chair of the Association of College and Research Libraries/New England Chapter Business Librarians' Interest Group and as President of ACRL/NEC from 2004-2005. Colleen reviews materials in the area of business for Choice: Current Review for Academic Libraries, and she has a particular interest in industry research. She is currently an adjunct professor of management at Bryant University.

Colleen holds an MLIS from the University of Rhode Island and an MBA from Bryant University.